A TRUTH.

"It's nothing to gain popularity, but it is rarely that man retain it. Like money, 'come easy, go easy,' popularity is a tender affar, and requires careful nursing to keep it alive. Especially is this observable in mercantile affairs. If the reputation, which is but another name for popularity, he won by actual merit, it is lasting. Mr. THOMAS R. AUNEW, the well-knewn importer, green, flour and tea dealer, No. 260 Greenwich and 19 Murray six, has by his straightforward course, the fairness of his prices, and the excellence, of his stock, accurded a reputation which will be lasting. With a capital of $20,000, he can defy competition, and afford to sell, sit either wholesale or retail, at prices to sait everyhody. Give him a call, and be satisfied of the truth of our assentions. 1— [New-York Allas.]
